Our ref Sch/Cir No.1/30th. November. 2018

Dear Parent / Guardian,

RE: END OF YEAR CIRCULAR 2018

Greetings to you all. We thank the almighty God who has enabled us to successfully complete the term without any major incidents.

I send condolences to all those who lost their loved one during the course of the term. May God grant them Eternal rest.

I would also like to appreciate all those who have been able to pay the school dues in time.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- The school was able to secure a UNEB centre number 538263 this year 2018 and our P.7 candidates this year have sat their P.L.E exams under our school name.
- We were able to separate the Nursery section from the Primary section thereby reducing on congestion and creating a conducive learning environment for our Nursery Learners.
- A few of our catholic and protestant pupils were able to undertake the Christian vows of Holy Communion, confirmation and solemn Communion this year. Therefore all parents that are interested in this programme should notify the office at the beginning of the term so that arrangements can be made in time. (This is for pupils from P.3 -P.6 for Catholics and P.6 pupils for Protestants).
- The boarding section also got bigger premises to further reduce on congestion.
- It was also resolved that all P.6 and P.7 candidates join boarding section next year to increase the teacher/pupil contact hours.

CAUTION

- We request parents/ guardians not to put beads in the children's hair because they are very dangerous to the young ones. Therefore, no child will be allowed with beads in the hair, necks, and hands or around their waists.
- We strongly warn parents/ guardians on their children's hair styles. The school only allows pencil style (conrows) for girls and brush for boys and boarders are advised not to plait for proper hygiene and maintainance.
- We also advise parents not to give Rosaries to the young children because they break them and end up swallowing the beads. Therefore to be on a safe side it's better to leave them at home.
