Dear Sir/ Madam,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you most sincerely for your generous and faithful support of our Franciscan Prison Ministry during 2018, and your constant help over the years. We truly appreciate what you do to make the lives of those we serve more bearable.

Our Prison Ministry has developed over the years. Currently, we visit the two Sections of Luzira Upper Prison, Murchison Bay and Kigo Main and Women's on a regular basis and Remand Prison from time to time.

1. We provide supplementary nutrition and medical and hygiene needs to the sick and elderly inmates in all the Sections.
2. We provide scholastic materials to the Education Section: Primary, Secondary and Tertiary levels.
3. We offer various trainings in order to contribute towards the rehabilitation of the inmates for example: Leadership and Positive Parenting Seminars; Para – legal training; Rehabilitation of Sex Offenders programme; training in Bookbinding and Candle making. (We have recently been requested to help fund a Tie and Dye Project in Murchison Bay Section).
4. We are involved in Advocacy Issues – highlighting the plight and needs of inmates through the various media.

We are not allowed to take photographs within the prisons so I am sharing with you some photos taken by Prison Officers during trainings that our Organisation funded. I hope these will be of some help.

Please accept our deep gratitude for all your support.

Yours sincerely,

Sr. Frances Rooney
