Mr. Sudhir Ruparelia,
Ruparelia Foundation,
Crane Chambers,
Kampala.

Dear Sudhir,

Re: Kampala School for the Physically Handicapped.

This has reference to your very generous pledge of Shs. 10,000,000, towards my fund raising efforts in respect of the above.

The fund raising was done at a party to celebrate my 80th birthday, and amounted to as approximately US$ 20,000., including your pledge.

From these funds a payment of US$ 12,900 has been handed over to District Grand Charity Uganda for allocation of one unit of flat out of six to be constructed for the members of the staff at the School Campus.

In addition to that the following has already been paid for and delivered to the school when the District Grand Master was here on 12th April, on his official visit:-

1. Five wheel chairs.
2. One printer for the I.T. class.
3. Two weighing scales for the clinic
4. One screen curtain for the clinic.
5. Two portable commodes.

I am still collecting the pledges and the balance will be spent in acquiring further items of equipment, etc for the School.

All donations to the School and the plaque on the flat will be in "From friends of K.S.P.H in the U.K. and Uganda".

I will be very grateful to receive your remittance.

Thanking you for your generosity and support.

Yours sincerely,

Naru Thakkar.
